

Quantified Activity Recording For Everyone

Research

Capture high resolution movement data and physical activity & posture measures for large scale health and disease research studies. Measure time-synchronized activity on multiple locations on the body with flexibility to combine with ECG, EOG, EEG, respiration or other sensors. Record on chest, wrist or leg.

